EXHIBIT

The work of a group of friends who have encountered the charism of the ecclesial movement Communion and Liberation, this exhibit explores the life and impact of founder Father Luigi Giussani in the United States. How do Americans—with their unique sense of “destiny” and “promise” and the potential of the individual—receive the proposal of this Italian priest? Through their lived experiences, these Americans testify to an extraordinary encounter that happened--and “still happens, here and now.”
